

Former pupil is finalist in film critic competition

Posted by Charlene Mitchell on Oct 6, 09 03:35 PM in Schools/colleges

A FORMER Haydon School pupil has made it through to the finals of the Young Film Critic Awards.

Tom Slater, who completed his A levels at the school in Wiltshire Lane, Eastcote, this year is a finalist in the 15 to 19 year olds category.

Tom, who is now at university, submitted a review of the film Burn After Reading. The Awards ceremony is being held on October 15 at Bafta in London where the winners will be announced.

The Awards are part of National Schools Film Week.

Gazette 14th October 2009